

Appeal: Fairplay for Free Assange - Defend Freedom of the Press!

The Society Culture of Peace calls together with together with numerous supporters to a solidarity action on Sunday, 11 July 2021 for Julian Assange and the freedom of the press, on the occasion of the final of the European football championship at Wembley Stadium in London – not far from Julian Assange's prison. "You will never walk alone!"

As the media and the football world look forward to the final match of the European Championship in London, Wembley Stadium, Julian Assange is – unlawfully – sitting in not far away in the high security prison Belmarsh. His health and life are at risk. "In football we demand fair play – in dealing with the investigative journalist Assange, we demand the same!"

On the occasion of the Wikileaks founder's 50th birthday on 3 July 2021, there were numerous protests nationwide and worldwide on that day with rallies for the immediate release of Julian Assange, who faces 175 years in prison if extradited to the USA. He is being held by the USA for, among other things, publishing US war crimes in Iraq and Afghanistan. Especially in view of the end of the NATO's Afghanistan mission, the important role of Julian Assange must be acknowledged and those responsible for war crimes must be for war crimes finally be held accountable.

The signatories of the appeal demand that the German government and the representatives of the EU to work for the immediate release Julian Assange's. To the media representatives to defend the freedom of the press.

Only recently it became known that the main prosecution witness according to witness was coerced by the US Secret Service into making a false statement.

The Culture of Peace Society, together with the signatories of the appeal to a solidarity action on Sunday 11 July 2021 for Julian Assange and the freedom of the press, on the occasion of the final match of the European Football Championship at Wembley Stadium in London - not far from Julian Assange's prison. "You will never walk alone"

Contact: Society Culture of Peace, Welthaus Stuttgart, Charlottenplatz 17, Germany, info@kulturdesfriedens.de